Chinese Acupressure Massage

Acupressure massage therapy is a traditional healing art with 2000 years of history and has been recognized worldwide. It uses gentle but firm pressure on key points of the body to release muscular tension and increase muscle elasticity. Acupressure works by increasing circulation, allowing muscles to absorb more oxygen and nutrients which clears away toxin build up in tense muscles and clears energy pathways.

Massage Can Treat

- Tension & Stress
- Headache, Insomnia
- Stiff Neck and Shoulder
- Repetitive Strain Injuries
- Arthritis
- Sports Injuries
- Back Pain, Sciatica
- Chronic Muscular Pain

Benefits of Massage

- Relax muscle and soft tissue
- Increase oxygen and nutrition supply
- Eliminate toxins and carbonic acid
- Improve immune system and blood circulation
